Congressional Convention.

Thirteenth District.

The Democracy of the Thirteenth Congressional District, composed of the counties of Fairfield, Franklin, Hocking and Perry, will meet in Convention at Lancaster, Aug. 31st, 1886, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for Congress.

The basis of representation in said convention shall be one delegate for each one hundred votes cast for George Hoadly, for Governor, at the last State election, and an additional delegate for each fraction of 50 votes or over, so cast.

The several counties will thereby be entitled to the following representation by delegates:

	Votes.	No. Delegates.
Fairfield	4,550	46
Franklin	11,000	115
Hocking	2,200	23
Perry	3,100	32

By order of Committee,
B. L. REESE, Chairman.
U. C. RUTTER, Sec.

Judicial Convention.

The Convention to nominate a candidate for Common Pleas Judge for the Seventh Judicial District, composed of the counties of Fairfield, Hocking and Perry, will be held in Logan, Tuesday, September 7, 1886, at 11 o'clock, a. m.

The basis of representation in said Convention shall be one delegate for each one hundred votes cast for George Hoadly for Governor, at the last State election, and an additional delegate for each fraction of 50 votes or over, so cast.

The several counties will be entitled to the following representation by delegates:

Fairfield	46
Hocking	23
Perry	32

The Democratic State Executive Committee will be selected by the State Central Committee at Columbus next week, and after that the time and manner of opening the State campaign will be decided upon.

CHAUNCEY F. BLACK, a son of the late Judge Black, has been nominated by the Democrats for Governor of Pennsylvania. As he is extremely popular among the Democrats of the old Keystone State, we may expect the party to poll an increased vote.

THE return of Cutting to the United States settles nothing. He was not sent across the line because his delivery had been demanded by our Government, but because the Mexican Court thought he had been punished sufficiently, and his Mexican prosecutor declined to bring suit for damages. The question of the right to punish him for a crime committed in Texas—if that complexion of the affair be borne out in the investigation—remains open. The whole difficulty hinges upon that single point.—Philadelphia Record.

How the Democratic Nominee for Secretary of State is received at home.

MASSILON, O., Aug. 24.—Hon. John McBride, Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, arrived at his home here to-day, the first time since the convention, and was given an ovation to-night by his fellow-townsmen, irrespective of party. If any man is popular at his home, it is McBride. As an illustration of the good feeling that exists toward him among Republicans here, it may be well to cite the fact that a prominent politician offers to bet any sum of money that even if the Republicans carry the State by fifteen thousand, McBride would be elected.

This evening a number of friends of Mr. McBride visited the modest little home of the coal miner and prospective Secretary of State, and decorated it handsomely with flags. This evening about one thousand people headed by the Harmonia Band, marched to McBride's cottage and tendered him a serenade. When the recipient of the compliment appeared, the crowd set up a great cheer. Ex-Mayor Otto E. Young, then made a congratulatory address, to which Mr. McBride responded in a brief, non-political speech, which was interrupted by much applause. At the conclusion of his remarks, three rousing cheers for John McBride went up from a thousand throats, after which the band played, while McBride mingled in the crowd, shaking hands and receiving the hearty congratulations of his friends and neighbors.

Infirmary Superintendent.

On Tuesday next the Hocking County Infirmary changes Superintendents. Mr. Nixon retiring and Mr. A. C. Murphy succeeding to the place.

Mr. Nixon retires by the expiration of term, and not from any dissatisfaction, on the part of the directors, with his conduct of the Institution.

It is but fair to all concerned in the management of the Institution, to say that Mr. Nixon, while not managing in a stingy manner has come nearer making the Infirmary self supporting than any of his predecessors, and while much is said concerning the debts, we wish to remind the people that these debts were in the main if not entirely contracted before Mr. Nixon took charge of the Institution. His successor, Mr. Murphy is a young man of excellent reputation, and we hope his administration may be successful and satisfactory to the management and the people.

The "Knights of Labor."

Much ado is just now being made by some evil minded persons, over the conviction of Parsons, one of the Chicago Anarchists. It is claimed that Parsons is a Knight and his conviction is a legal blow at that organization.

Now what are the real facts? Parsons is and has been a member of "Mixed Assembly No. 1007," which is known as one of the socialistic assemblies of Chicago, of the Knights.

Last spring when the District organization of K. of L. of Chicago, repudiated the conspiracy which led to the "Haymarket massacre," the Assembly to which Parsons belonged protested against the condemnation of the virulent theories of this agitator, and the answer to this protest was the prompt suspension of this Assembly from all rights and privileges in the Order of K. of L. by the order of District Master Workman, Murphy.

This order has been appealed from, but, happily for the future usefulness of the organization, with little likelihood that it will be reversed. It should be the duty of every honest Knight of Labor in America to use his influence to put toleration of anarchy, violence, and murder out of the organization. It cannot afford to countenance or support any policy that threatens all society with bloodshed, destruction, and lawlessness. Knights of Labor have been committed to the pursuit of peaceful and legal methods to further and defend the rights of their membership. By these alone can they prosper.

"Old Moss Back" Answered.

Your legal question is hardly sufficiently concise to admit of a direct answer.

You do not state the charge on which the arrest and conviction were had.

If the charge was Assault and Battery, and the complaint was made by the party injured, and the defendant when arraigned pleaded "guilty" or if after trial and judgment on leave of the Justice of the Peace withdrew his plea of "not guilty," entered on arraignment, and then pleaded "guilty," the action of the Justice of the Peace is legal and final. If, however, no plea of guilty was entered or complaint was made by another, he was wrong as the statute grants final jurisdiction in criminal cases, only on a plea of "guilty," when complaint is made by the party injured. If, however, the warrant was for the crime of "maiming," then the Justice of the Peace was wrong in assuming final jurisdiction in any event, and any final judgment he might render would be void and without force. The crime of maiming is a felony, for which the Justice of the Peace if he finds probable guilt, shall hold the accused under bonds for his appearance at the next term of the Common Pleas Court.

Probable Upshot of the Mexican Border Difficulties.

Under the present condition of things it is possible for any one living along the Texan side of the Rio Grande to be hustled across the border by means of collusion on the part of local officials, and murdered without even the form of trial. This was actually done in the case of Arresures, and can be done again. Secretary Bayard's action in calling the matter to the attention of the Governor of Texas, is doubtless the preliminary step to further proceedings on the part of our Government to make the repetition of such crimes impossible. If, as now seems probable, the Arresures and Cutting episodes shall result in a thorough revision of our relations with Mexico and an amicable arrangement by which the rights of American citizens shall be fully protected, Secretary Bayard will have done more to open up Mexico to American capital and enterprise, and cement the bonds of sympathy and good feeling between the two Republics than all his critics could accomplish in a generation by tamely submitting, as they proposed to do, to the outrages committed by Mexican officials of the Mondragon stamp along the Rio Grande.

ED. DEMOCRAT.—Thinking that some of the subscribers to your newsy paper might be interested in a few lines from this part of our county, I will say that all the candidates have been around. They are all fine-looking gentlemen, and deserve the hearty support of the people. They are all, I believe, true Democrats, and as such, are entitled to a due consideration from the people; but six of them will be beaten next Saturday, according to the nature of such things. To him who is successful in the race, I would say, do not crow over your opponents, but thank your friends for the favor they have conferred upon you. Be friendly to your beaten opponents, and promise them hope in the future, for the Democratic family should dwell together in peace and harmony.

There was a fight a few days since, between John Swackhammer and Abe Tigner, and while engaged Tigner bit off Swackhammer's ear, and the latter's mother swore out a warrant for Tigner's arrest, before B. H. Stevenson. J. B. Risson appeared for the defendant, and O. P. Clark for the State. After hearing the testimony, the 'Squire fined Tigner $3.00 and costs, and Swackhammer $2.50. The defendant says he thinks Tigner swallowed his sense, for the piece could not be found on the battlefield. Mr. Editor, can said case be again renewed and tried before the next Grand Jury? Please answer through your paper, as it is a question of doubt.

You remember Uncle Ben Van fossen, who had his property burnt by his friends, as they say in a letter sent to him or dropped at his yard gate. The scoundrels who burned him out were not satisfied; a few evenings ago they went into the field where he had his wheat on shock, and cut the bands of all the sheaves, thereby causing him a great deal of trouble in handling his wheat. Such inhuman treatment deserves the severest punishment that can be lawfully inflicted.

Mr. Motas L. Davis, the mail contractor on route No. 21422, has been superseded by the John Karshner railroad, but Mote is still running a wagon for the purpose of hauling freight and passengers, in opposition to the railroad. He has all he can do, and does as much in the way of carrying passengers as the railroad.

The negro camp meeting, for the benefit of D. H. Strous, at the Mineral Spring grounds, is a total failure financially, the attendance being very small on both Sabbaths, on which days there was an entrance fee charged at the gate. Not more than one hundred people attended on either Sabbath. They took up a collection from the congregation on Thursday night of last week, and got one penny, which was announced from the stand. On the next night they tried the collection business again, but got nothing, or at least nothing was reported, and they showed their disappointment by getting a little blacker in the face than usual.

John C. Dehaven is still sick. He has not been away from home for about two years.

The Salt Creek Valley Turnpike Co. has been re-graveling the said pike with a soft gravel, which will be soon ground to sand.

There was a grand gathering Sunday, the 22d, at Jimtown, on Pike Run, near the Yale settlement, in which four Sabbath-schools, and four singing-schools took part, with banners and flags with each. There were about two thousand people present, and a very enjoyable time was had. OLD MOSS BACK.

History of the United States,

Bound in Leatherette Tree Calf, Gilt, and containing twenty-two fine engravings. This dainty book of 320 12-mo pages is indispensable to everyone as a work of quick and convenient reference. It is printed on good paper, with wide margins, and is a prize for a bibliophile.

Read Carefully.

This history is arranged chronologically by years, from 1492 to 1885. Every event is narrated in the order of its date. These are not confined, as in other works, to political matters, but embrace every branch of human action. It describes, under its proper date, all important events; all discoveries in science and the useful arts; the digging of canals and the building of railroads and telegraph lines; the founding of towns, and the erection of notable buildings and bridges; the first performance of plays and the first appearance of actors and singers; fires, floods, hail storms, tornadoes, cyclones, epidemics; accidents and disasters on land and sea; riots and crimes; panics and business failures; "corners" and phenomenal prices in all markets; labor troubles, strikes, and lockouts, and hundreds of other matters never mentioned by historians, which are of the greatest importance to all who wish to understand the progress of their country. Besides being a history in the ordinary sense, it is a condensed newspaper file for four hundred years.

THE National Tribune, published in Washington City, the recognized soldiers' paper, pays a glowing tribute to Commissioner of Pensions Black, and says that his administration has been characterized by greater promptness in the disposal of claims and by greater liberality to the soldiers in the decisions than any administration of the department since the war. In view of the disloyalty charged to the Democratic party by Republican leaders during the past twenty years this commendation of a Democratic official having in charge the pensioning of the union soldier is a mighty big compliment. If there are any Republicans in this country who ever took any stock in these old Republican charges, we commend this endorsement of the G. A. R. Journal to their careful consideration.

Prohibition in Maine.

[New York Sun.]

It seems a little odd to see a contest for Prohibition beginning in earnest in a State where Prohibition has been the law for more than a third of a century, and which only two years ago put Prohibition into the Constitution. The vote for St. John in Maine was only 2100. The vote for Estus for Governor was only 1190, while the vote cast on the same day for the prohibitory amendment was 70,783.
